DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Comments

All claims are allowed. See file history – including (but not only) the amendment. Applicant has argued that "outputting the transmit word" is a significant amendment and is meant to comply with 35 USC 101 and MPEP 2106. This, and other terms of the claims that are now affected in turn from this amendment (such as, but not only, the term scrambling which refers to a specific hardware handling using the transmit word) must be considered.

Conclusion
